The proprietors of the Telegraph having allowed me to edit the Temperance column, are not responsible for any of the matter contained therein. So to avoid any mistake as to the authorship, or to whom the responsibility belongs, I would say my friend W, and myself are the only ones up to this time that have written a word for this department.

LOCAL OFTION LAW—WILL IT HE PASSED.

There probably has never been a time in the history of the state when so many petitions, eigned by so many thousands of responsible manies, and all aiming at a specific object, as has been witnessed in Ohio for the past two months. It is not a party measure, for men belonging 10 both the great parties have signed the petitions for local option on the basis of Woman Sufferage, on the belief that the best interests of State, and the greatest good to the greatest number, would be best secured by the passage of such a law. Some of the atrongest ministers of the state have preached exhaustive sermons in favor of the passage of such a law, and many of the ablest and purest women of the age, by tongue and pen have tsuied unanswersable appeals to the conscience, the judgment and the Christian sympathies of the American perple. Backed all this labor and loul of tongue and pen, are the prayers of thousand of God a children, that he will bless all those instrumentahities used to accomplish this object, and to more appea the hearts of our Legislators that they may be constrained to pass such a law as those petitions described before adjournment.

In the present legislature the Republicions have a good working majority, and this fact led many of us to have strong hopes that they would heed the prayers of so many thousands and not let the month of February pass without decisive action.

These hopes were strengthened when we that the second. LOCAL OPTION LAW-WILL IT BE PASSED.

so many thousands and not let the month of February pass without decisive action.

These hopes were strengthened when we called to somind this fact, which is attested by observation and experience, that all the legislation in Layer of Temperance that amounts to anything in any state in the Union, since the landing of the Pilgrims on Plymouth rock in 1690, down to this present, year of grace, 1880, has been brought about through the agency of the Republican party.

At least 90 per cent of the temperance man of today are in the Republican party, or have been previously to them acting with the Problition party. The question now is, will our Republican Legislatore rise above the transmets of party, the scheming policy of mere politicians and place themselves open the record as the party of progress in fact, as it is now on theory. I have grave doubts about their doing so, yet I sake them to remember before it is to late to be of any avail, that this is a representative government, where the people choose their rulers, and their its makers, and it is treading on dangerous ground to disregard the express wishes of even a respectable minority. I firmly believe that the Temperance voters of the Scate will soon be strong enough to hold the balance of political power. In Ohio and it may be well for politicians, who make no move except diorated by policy, to pause a moment and look the ground over carefully, and see if they can a sford to alternate those who, all other things being equal prefer to work in the Republican party, if by so doing, they can further the ends of Temperance. That the present aepect of the political situation in Ohio is understood by some of the shrewing politicans in the Democratio party, if the political situation in Ohio is understood by some of the shrewing politicans in the Democratio party, if the political power is the case of the political situation in Ohio is understood by some of the shrewing the political power. In thin the present aepect of the political situation in Ohio is understood

Listen to the words of the Cincinatic Engusteer, our enemies themselves being judges.

"The new crusale is what the vigorous breaking out all over the land is called." That there is unusual motion, energy and determination in the matter of opposition to the liquor traffic, is too apparent to escape the observation of the most obtuse. It is in the sair everywhers. Not a breeze from any quarter but is sonorous with the notes of preperation, and the voices of the workers. The women furnish most of the agitating force, and it is very effective. The strougholds of sin must prepare for moordinary struggle, or fall with a crash that will make every distillery, brewery and wine-press in the country tremble. The two main points sought to be accomplished by legislature, are local option, and woman sufferage at such option elections. Give the women the ballot on such occasions, allow them to have a voice in the question, whether salcons and beer or wine rooms where intoxicating drinks are sold, may or may not exist, and not a drop could a thirsty onl; got anywhere in the State. There is an earneatness in the new crusade we have never before witnessed, and if there are any who think there is not going to be much of a shower after all, they will fool themselves as completely as did the scoffers of Noah and he ark. The signs of fool themselves as completely as did the scoffers of Noah and his ark. The signs of the coming storm are too apparent for any observing mind to mistake their meaning. Local option and women suffrage will be the inspiring motto of the new crusaders, and the political arena will be made lively with the shouts of battle-cry, and activity of those who use it. And it will worry the political parties and the small politicians more than any question they have had for some time to deal with. Shall we say there is fun or death ahead? Shall we say there is fun or death shead?

Shall we say there is fun or death shead?

Eds. Tel.—The six of intemperance is one to which all classes of society are exposed, and especially the youthful and rising generation. They are not accustomed at the present day to the toil and hardships that the families of our Ploneer fathers endured, and therefore, have more time for recreation, and this opens a large field for indulgance, and the so called "innocent amusements" of the present day. Reads of families should fash more deeply, the responsibilities that rest upon them, and while instructing their children in the arts and sciencies, should teach them the true principles of inorality and worth of their immortal souls, whose sternal destiny depends largly upon the instruction impressed in early life. Perhaps no duty devolving upon parents is more grossly neglectmortal souls, whose eternal destiny depends largly upon the instruction impressed in early life. Perhaps no duty devolving upon parents is more grossly neglected at the present day, and none can possibly be more detrimental to the happiness and prosperity of the age in which we live. The laboring classes are also exposed to the temptations and vices of intemperance are worn out, by the toils and hardships of life, they naturally fly to the intoxicating cup to drive away trouble and care, but in stead of this they add fuel to the flame of already kindled passion and depe sorrow to the aching heart. A large proportion of intemperate men can be found among those who have gone through our colleges, but it must not be inferred that the cultivation of the intillest affords no moral alide. Educated men fall victims to be installed. Educated men fall victims to be must one of the cultivation of the intillest affords no moral alide. Ayer's Hair Vigor, FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO I'S NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

Ir is a most agreeable dressing, which s at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often ough not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Viuon cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible,

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair, The Vigor is Incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the tollet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.
